ORDER PURSUANTION TO 4: 53

Complainant Thomas Cost ("Cost") filed a petition for interlocutory review with the Commission on March 20, 2007 from the Administrative Law Judge's ("ALJ") refusal to disqualify himself on alleged grounds of "personal bias." 17 C.F.R. § 12.309(a)(1). While the petition was pending before the Commission, the ALJ sua sponte recused himself from further participation in this matter, and stayed the case pending its reassignment to another presiding officer. Order of April 18, 2007. Cost's petition is dismissed as moot. The Proceedings Clerk shall reassign the case in accordance with applicable procedures.
